

SUSTAINABILITY SCORECARD – DEC 2022

In FY22 NCIG established three-year (FY24) targets for all key sustainability focus areas of our operations. A pathway for achieving these targets was also developed to ensure that we actively monitor and manage performance in the interim reporting periods. For several focus areas this led to the establishment of FY23 interim targets, providing specific progressive improvement in performance to assist in the achievement of our commitments and goals. We report our half-yearly performance against our interim targets.

SAFETY

Our people are at the heart of our business and the prevention and active management of any injuries to our workers is our number one priority. Our culture encourages safe behaviours and fosters an environment where workers feel safe to speak freely about and proactively manage health and safety matters.

NCIG is an industrial site and as such, many of our people work with heavy machinery, which requires extensive collaboration and coordination. We take great pride in working at our terminal and are committed to the safety of all employees, contractors, visitors, and the environment in which we operate. Everyone at NCIG has a responsibility to uphold our organisation's high safety standards, and we recognise that our commitment to safety can only be achieved with personal commitment, cooperation and teamwork. Our integrated HSEC Management System is ISO45001:2018 certified.

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

Our culture is inclusive and promotes equality and diversity, supporting all our people to reach their full potential. We are committed to driving diversity in our workplace and want all our people to feel valued and respected, and to have equal access to opportunities. We want to empower them to contribute their diverse skills and perspectives, and we value the benefit this brings to our culture and business performance.

We recognise the importance of a workforce with a diverse background which involves aspects of ethnicity, age, gender, gender identity, disability, sexual orientation, religious beliefs, language and education. We also recognise that each member of our workforce has a unique blend of characteristics, knowledge, skills, perspectives and life experiences. We respect and value their differences, and believe that this promotes equality, diversity and inclusion. When it comes to workplace diversity and inclusion, we are committed to being focused on driving change within our business. Understanding our diversity aspirations and transforming these into positive behaviours and action is an essential part of NCIG's working environment.

HEALTH & WELLBEING

Our people are at the heart of our business and the prevention and active management of their safety, health and wellbeing is our number one priority. Our culture encourages safe behaviours and fosters an environment where workers feel safe to speak freely about and proactively manage health and safety matters, including mental health. According to the Australian Bureau of Statistics, 45% of Australians aged 16-85 will experience a mental health condition in their lifetime.

We recognise that everyone has a mental health and that our workers are not exempt from the effects of poor mental health. Our mental health strategy, which is being implemented in partnership with Mental Health Movement, aims to strengthen the mental health of our people. It builds a foundation of mental health awareness and evolves skills towards resilience and mental health fitness.

TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT

NCIG is committed to the education and development of our people. We invest in their education and professional development by offering a diverse range of learning and development opportunities. This includes apprenticeship and graduate programs, to shadowing, job rotation, and leadership and specialist training. We also support on the job experience and formal education, and our employees are provided several opportunities each year to participate in training and development outside the core requirements of their role. We learn what their training and development goals are through annual performance assessments, routine quarterly development meetings with managers, and our biennial voluntary employee engagement surveys.

COMMITMENT	Provide training and development opportunities to ensure our people remained engaged and are ready for their next career challenge

BIODIVERSITY

NCIG ensures the resilience of its operations while minimising its impacts on the environment. Our local environment is home to a threatened species of frog, the Green and Golden Bell Frog, and numerous species of migratory shorebirds, such as the critically endangered Eastern Curlew and Curlew Sandpiper. These species are increasingly losing their natural habitat, so our efforts aim to create, restore, and sustain biodiversity of our native flora and fauna in urban environments, creating wildlife corridors and encouraging habitat conservation.

NCIG is committed to enhancing local ecology, both within our operation and on the land surrounding the terminal site. The wetlands adjacent to our operations are home to several threatened species and communities. Our activities therefore focus on increasing habitat value of existing biodiversity lands through active management and collaborative partnerships.

COMMITMENT	Nurture positive outcomes for local biodiversity through our projects and partnerships
GOAL	Increase the habitat value of existing biodiversity lands and surrounds

WASTE

NCIG is committed to the sustainable management of the environment and minimising the potential environmental impacts of its operations. We have a strong tradition in working towards limiting waste to landfill and promoting the reuse and recycling of materials generated onsite. Achieving the best end-of-life use for the products and materials used at our terminal is a priority.

NCIG’s waste management strategy is modelled on a waste hierarchy, which is based on maximum conservation of resources. It applies the principles of Avoid, Reduce, Reuse and Recycle. There are several legislative and regulatory documents that apply to the way in which NCIG manages wastes from its facility. These are primarily broken down into legislation and policies, the majority of which are administered by state government departments, such as the NSW Environment Protection Authority (EPA).

COMMITMENT	We optimise our air, water and waste management
GOAL	Achieve the minimum possible waste footprint through proactively managing waste reduction, promoting reuse and recycling where possible

WATER

Water is critical to NCIG’s operations, and we are committed to using it responsibly. We recognise that water is a valuable natural resource, particularly during times of drought, and are focused on reducing our usage whilst minimising impacts to our surrounding water bodies. We manage our activities carefully to minimise our impact on water quality in the harbour and in surrounding wetlands. NCIG’s Operation Water Management Plan documents the ways in which we plan, implement and monitor our activities to mitigate impacts on water and sustainably control water usage. We have invested extensively in the design and operation of our water management system to manage water quality following heavy rainfall and expect our Recycled Water Project to be operational in early 2023.

COMMITMENT	We optimise our air, water and waste management
GOAL	Minimise reliance on the potable water network, particularly during times of high-water stress (drought)

¹ In 2021, we conducted a Recycled Water Project feasibility study on the introduction of recycled water from a local wastewater treatment facility into our site raw water process system. In March 2022, the Project commenced and will be commissioned in early 2023, which we expect will enable us to deliver significant potable water savings and will help us achieve our FY24 target.

ENERGY & EMISSIONS

NCIG has a proactive approach to energy and emissions management. Most of our energy usage occurs due to the electricity required to operate our critical infrastructure and assets. We strongly focus on identifying opportunities to reduce energy consumption and consequently improve energy efficiency and are committed to procuring renewable energy where feasible. Our approach to reducing our emissions focuses on the emissions sources within our direct control (Scope 1 and Scope 2). Part of setting our ambition in this area is developing a feasible pathway and an achievable target to reach Operational Net Zero emissions by 2030.

COMMITMENT	We are committed to achieving Net Zero operational emissions by 2030

COMMUNITY SUPPORT

We believe we have a responsibility to support our local community and contribute to the creation of long-term social, environmental, and economic value. Actively participating locally enables us to connect with and develop deeper relationships with our neighbours, as well as contribute to the broader prosperity of our region and boost employee morale. Our community investment strategy comprises two core programs: our Community Support Program (CSP); and our Community Partnership Program (CPP). Both programs promote physical and mental health, improve access to quality education, and improve local amenities and the environment.

PROCUREMENT

NCIG is committed to acting ethically and with integrity across all our business dealings and relationships. We aim to make purchasing decisions that meet our operational needs while minimising the social and environmental impacts of the goods or service being procured. We also want to make a substantial economic contribution to the prosperity of our local region by giving preference to local businesses.

Our suppliers are a critical part of our operations, and we recognise that our procurement choices can create impacts on and value for our local community. We are committed to sustainable and ethical procurement of goods and services, and to local sourcing, with many of our critical supply partners are based in Newcastle and the Hunter Region.
